

United States Power Squadrons Seminars

ABC-MidAtlantic.org Seminar

A seminar to review on-line USPS member tools

Where: Virtual Free Conference Call
FCC Session ID – joe715

When: 1600 - 1730,
April 8, 2021

This seminar demonstrates web site features available to the public and privately to USPS Members. It identifies the tools available to district or squadron officers to maintain on-line information.

Abc-midatlantic.org serves as a resource to the 28 active squadrons in USPS District 5. For the public provides contact data for nearby squadrons. It provides information on future class or meeting events. And for members it provides tools to advertise future events.

This seminar will:

- Discuss the information available to the public on the District 5 organization.
- Identify the tools available to members to: find contact data for other members; identify members in officer or committee assignments; review historical records; etc.
- Identify the tools available to officers to: schedule events; identify awards; generate email lists; save records; etc.
- Discuss pending enhancements and solicit data on what other tools are needed.

Available to everyone. Recommended for all officers.

Provides information flow within District 5 & USPS

A forum on future web site initiatives

We look forward to seeing you in this Seminar. If you have any questions, Please do not hesitate to contact the DEO or ADEO. Your Educational Department team welcomes the opportunity to be of service.
